

PREPARING FOR BATTLE - - Jackie Brown, world's flyweight champion, in training for his "clash" of the season at Belle Vue, Manchester, with Dave Crowley.

-London & Manchester-

Picture:- Jackie Brown is to meet Dave Crowley ~~for the~~ ~~world's flyweight championship~~. Brown's sparring partners wait to meet Brown.

They're very respectful. No familiarity ! No "Hello, Brown, we hope you're feeling fit !" They know theirs is--

--~~evening~~. Brown is confident, but is leaving nothing to chance. The match was arranged only after very delicate--

--negotiations. The fight won't be half so delicate as the negotiations. Shadow boxing makes for speed, suppleness and accuracy. Sporting men, under the weather, sometimes do it. But this is the sober truth.

From one of these, properly landed, a boxer can read his future by the stars.

(TITLE).

Brown is confident of the result !

Dave Crowley's training quarters say that Dave is confident of the result. The fight is Crowley's "big chance".

For him it will surely be the 'clash' of the season. The event--

--will be at Manchester on January 23rd. This allows them both to recover from--

--the results of the festive season. Christmas boxes don't improve boxing. Notice the sparring partner has his face protected ! He's very intelligent !

May the best man win! Look at those gloves !

AND SO, FOR THE PRESENT, I LEAVE YOU !
