

GOING "ON THE ROAD" - "Showmen" of Britain meet to celebrate opening of their 1933 touring season.
- Olympia, London -

Picture:- The Showmen's Guild of Great Britain holds its Annual gathering prior to members taking the road again for the touring season. Two lillyputian heading the Company, ar followed by civic dignitaries, Heep-la merchants and --

-- film veterans. At this function, Mr. C.B. Cochran again rubs shoulders with the -- -- old friends of his earlier days as a showman. Clowns, beautiful bare-back riders are here disguised as quite ordinary people, dancing quite -- -- -- Well, its now getting near fivea.m., so the dances are not quite so --

-- ordinary. Tomorrow they will divide North, South, East and West and begin their picturesque wandering again. Here's to them !
