OXFORD CREW OUT - - Dark Blues carry on with practice for the Boat Race despite wintry conditions.

-Oxford-

Picture:- With the temperature three degrees below freezing point, the Oxford crew prepares for rowing practice. Excepting cold, the conditions to-day--

--are ideal, although blocks of ice prevent the boat from--

--going below the locks. Mr. P. Johnson is superintending the work which starts Oxford's effort towards winning this year's Race. Influenza prevents Moseley from taking his place as stroke.
After lots more work, we shall see !
