Picture.:- The loyalists to Austria's throne and country, meet just--

--to show that they mean what they profess.

This is their--

--great peace-time army. All these men have taken--

--an oath to protect Austria from enemies inside--

--the country, and out. Apart from-- --the actual troops who are taking-- --part in this demonstration, the organisation--

--is rather similar to our British Legion but carries out military exercises. Fifty-thousand-- --people gather to meet the men pledged to--

--foster the national spirit. Church and State unite--

--in this work; the Bishop blessing those, to whose--

--loyal keeping Austria has entrusted her integrity and honour.
