Dover for a trip to Morocco with the aid of much optimism and a 30-year-old car !

Picture:- Inawful weather, and a single cylinder car, over thirty--

--years old, Mr. Cozzi says he's going to tour-- --Africa. The Mayor of Dover presents him with a horseshow for his pluck,--

--and a letter to deliver to the British Consul at--

--Morocco. Mr. Cozzi speaks a number of languages,--

--and before he gets to Africa, he'll need them all to-- --use up for running repairs. Full of hope, the super-optimist moves off on the long long trail-a winding over Europe to North Africa. Well, none but the brave deserve the fair, but it's the return fare he wants to be certain about.
