THE VOICE OF LABOUR - - Nearly a quarter of a million people attend one of the most orderly labour demonstrations ever held in London.

-Hyde Park-

Picture.:- A feature of to-day unemployed demonstration are these carriers in top hats. They are prominent in the procession of not--

--less than thirty-thousand people. Contingents from all parts of England and Scotland gradually swell the huge crowds,--

--until not less than a quarter of a million workless citizens have gathered.

The gale has played havoc with many of the banners, but the feeling of the crowd--

--is one of grim determination. In mighty battalions they move forward to listen to-- --the various speakers. Most of these are of the extremely vigorous type. There are plenty of --

--of Police here, but for a massed demonstration of this kind it is most orderly. No--

--excitement, or hysteria ! In fact, that gives this event a--

--latent power which previous ones seem to have missed. The motion deprecating the Government's methods of handling unemployment--

--problems is put by Mr. Lansbury. Let's hope the day's efforts will bear fruit. It is needed !
