

WORLD'S BIGGEST DOG SHOW - - 3,448 exhibits, including a score of canine heroes, have the proud distinction of being shown at Cruft's, at the Royal Agricultural Hall.

-Islington.London-

---

Picture:- Every little doggie has his day, but this is the day for three and a -- --half thousand. Crufts is also a place for heroes to show--

--in. "Chum" went into a blazing house to rescue his-- --mistress. "Gyp" saved three children from burning to death in a tent while camping.

"Bob of Carmel" risked his life for his master's on two dangerous occasions; while--

'Peggy' supported a boy drowning in a canal until help arrived.

Hilda Bright was similarly saved by 'Prince'. She-- --held on to his ears, while he barked. No wonder he barked.

The judges' job to-day is not easy. From-- --thirty-five hundred they have to find the 'dog of dogs'. Ah English springer-spaniel-- --"Achi-Evement", written as spoken, wins five first and-- --two special prizes. The dog ! "Bramshaw Bob", owned by Lorna, Countess--
--Howe. For the second year, he wins the sterling silver cup !