DASHING DAMSELS - - Seventy-six Yorkshire lassies

all try to be first lady cross-country champion of the country.

-Wath-on-Dearne-

Picture:- Seventy-six Yorkshire lassies 'cast clouts' early to--

--start unhampered for their cross-country championship, from the racecourse at Wath-on-Dearne. The thoroughbreds which--

--usually run on this course are four-footed. Miss Bellamy and--

--Miss Cowgill closely follow Miss Bishop, who leads the field. The Misses Leader, Broadhurst, Hobson, and Baines are all running well.

There's Miss Berry, a promising Harrier from Longwood, but it's--

--Miss Bishop, the Hallamshire Harrier, who wins, with-- --the Misses Cowgill and Bellamy, second and third.

They've lost so much breath--

--they can't even talk. Bravo, Miss Bishop !
She'll never miss her last 'bus home !
