MANCHESTER "HOLD-UP" - - Students make a big raid on the pockets of the people - - in aid of the hospitals.

-Lancashire-

---

Picture.:- A pleasant change from the hold-ups we read so much of in the Press nowadays. Manchester students keep 'within the law',--

--and find it profitable. The appeal floats are strong in topical allusions. Caricatures of-- --the new Army uniform get a show with suggestions not approved by the War Office.

A grotesque novelty described as a joyous mouthful worth paying for "Stop me and bite one"

All along the route of the procession the students' bright ideas raise amusement--

--and money from tremendous crowds. Handsome is that handsome does.

This one did very well. Comedy interludes in the very best style usually bring lots of coppers--

--for the cause. But not the sort under these helmets. Whooppee !
