

2-44421

UNDER THE RED DRAGON - - Mr.D.Lloyd

George attends celebration of St.David's Day at Caernarvon Castle.

-N.Wales-

---

Picture:- Caernarvon Castle flies the Union Jack and the Red Dragon. It's St.David's Day, and for--

--Welsh men and women, that means more than --

--St.George's Day means for the English. Mr.Lloyd George attends this celebration of the-- --National Saint of Wales, and thousands assemble within the old castle walls--

--to sing the traditional songs of Wales.(SINGING).

(SINGING)

(SINGING).

Mr.Lloyd George addresses the huge gathering in Welsh and quotes that--

--the Welsh language will still be spoken when these walls cease to exist.

It sounded very peculiar in Welsh, but that's what it meant, so a Welshman said.