AN UNINVITED VISITOR - - Aerial pilot pays an unexpected call on inhabitants of a house in Brooklyn.

-New York-

Picture:- Here's the proof that a little knowledge--

--is a dangerous thing. A flying novice--

--scorned instructors, and went for a 'flip' on his own.

In a couple of minutes, the--

--'plane took charge of the pilot, pancaked on to the roof--

--of this house, pushed its nose over the side, and died !

The occupants were scared to death. They thought it was the--

--bailiffs, or the millennium. Then the pilot--

--crawled through the skylight, and explained it all.
He--

--was not hurt, but his confidence was badly buckled.
