

2-124951

THE DARK BLUES - - Introducing the men of the Oxford crew for this year's university boat race.

-Henley-on-Thames-

Picture:- After having their practice interrupted by members getting 'flu, the Oxford crew reports fit for work, and resumes training, with Brigadier-General Gibbon in charge.

G.I.F.Thompson is bow.

M.H.Mosley takes No.2. position.

W.D.C.Erskine-Crum, President, is No.3. Initial--

--knitters have been busy.J.M.Couchman is No.4.

P.Hogg takes No.5. position.

F.R.S.Banks Bo.6.

G.A.Ellison is at No.7.

R.W.G.Holdsworth is stroke, and C.Komaraku--

--na-Nagara is cox. For short he's called "Komar".
- - Well, anyway,--

--that's what he's called. And F.Freeman is spare man.
By the way Mr.Komar is--

--the first member of a Eastern race who has ever been given a place in a University--

--Boat Race.Crew. For nine years, Oxford has finished second place in a field of two. Perhaps this year - - oh dear, there's a bird following them up already !