

2-854PE1

WEARIN' OF THE GREEN - - Lady Roberts presents shamrock to the Irish Guards in honour of St. Patrick's Day.

-Aldershot-

Picture:- To each of the N.C.O's of the Irish Guards at Aldershot, Countess Roberts, daughter-- --of the late Lord Roberts, presents a basket of shamrock for distribution on this day--

--of St. Patrick. Commissioned officers also receive a sprig. Lord Roberts was-- --the Regiment's first Colonel.

(CHEERS 12 FEET - 2 SHOTS).

Do you know, or care, that the watercress leaf was once worn--

--to honour St. Patrick's Day. Anyway, watercress or shamrock, this day will be a great night in Ireland.