Here is a strong indication that a fight is due to take place. Len--

--Harvey doesn't do all these strenuous things without reason. The British middleweight champion-- --is just arranging in his mind what he will do with his opponent at Manchester.

Imagine the ball to be the victim's head, and you get some idea !

Harvey fought his last fight with a cold-- --in the head. In this fight he proposes to give Jock MacAvoy--

--a cold in the feet. Jock knows that, so he's taking a few precautions to keep things fairly warm and lively--

--on the great night. Now he's just beating the air, but he soon hits on something more substantial than--

--that. Rene Devos, the famous Belgian boxer, assists MacAvoy as a socking partner. After taking all that,--

--MacAvoy hopes to relieve Harvey of the title.
