FIRST LADY OF U.S.A. - - Mrs Roosevelt, wife of the President, favours riding astride as healthy exercise.

Washington D.C.-

Picture.:-

When Mrs Roosevelt, the U.S. President's wife goes riding in Washington, she pays the penalty of fame.

She has to explain why she prefers to ride astride, while amateur and professional camera--

--men -- oh battalions of them -- secure pictures of the First Lady of the Land in the saddle. It's all the price of being in public life. Mrs. Roosevelt is noted for her good temper.

So on request she poses for her admirers and that's the charming result !
