VAN HORSE PARADE - - 700 entries, more than the average in pre-war days, at 25th annual parade, in Regent's Park.

-London-

Picture.:-

London's Lord Mayor honours the remaining-- --representatives of London's van horses. Nearly-- --700 entries are observed and judged by-- --Colonel Laurie, Assistant-Commissioner of Police(left) and Sir George Hastings (right).

It's a great day for horses and drivers. Motor-cars are--

--all very well in their way, but a horse,-- --well, it's a horse ! Ask him what he thinks !

They're all worked up and impatient to see about those prizes--

--at the other end of the parade. Many may--

-get hot and bothered, but there's one ought to be cool. This--

--fellow, with an ice-cream van at his tail !

There are 60 more entries this year than last,
which suggests--

--that the horse is not so unpopular as one might gather--
--from the lurid language of motorists in a hurry !
