Lord Harewood's "CRAIG PARK", with Joe Childs up, and Lord Rosebery's "HURON", with H. Wragg up, leave the paddock. The-- --contest is for the custody of the famous Whip of--

--Charles II. The Princess Royal, with Lord Harewood, is here to see the--

--start of the race. (EFFECTS).

There's a lot of interest in this curious--

--event. For fourteen years, it has been a 'walk-over'.
This year, Lord Harewood challenged Lord Rosebery for the honour of nominally winning the world's most ancient racing trophy.

The loser also has the honour of paying the winner two hundred sovereigns. "CRAIG-PARK" wins, and the Whip--

--passes to the care of Lord Harewood, who congratulates Joe Childs on his victory.
