-Portsmouth-

Picture.:- The Naval team is all ready to start--

--their rehearsal of one of the Royal Tournament--

--thrills - - to rush guns over all sorts of obstacles. I said rush, and meant it! Just watch their speed!, over the wall! (PAUSE).

Their fellow sailormen are seeing that it's a credit--

--to the Navy. Now to bridge the chasm!

First party over! (PAUSE).

The wheels weigh 180 pounds - - (PAUSE) - - and the gun eight hundred-weight. Then comes the trail! - -

Half a ton of gun, and nearly as much man!

Yes, it's going well, boys!

There's the limber - - five hundred-weight and--

--the excitement grows.

Lightning assembly, and they move off to their appointed position.

(EFFECTS).

A few seconds more, and they're ready for business!

Well, we always knew sailormen were fast workers!
