IN TIME FOR DINNER - - Universal cameraman
drops in on the Cameronians at their "summer training"
camp near Hawick.

-Scotland-

Picture:- For summer-time training the Cameronians move to Stobs Camp, and the wide-open spaces, and arrive just at lunch-time.

(EFFECTS).

The kitchen-staff specialises in a no-waiting service(Pause).

The Tommies answering the call, like true
soldiers, roll up--

--in full strength to the al fresco quick-lunch counter,

--and get their basinful - - no - - sorry ! They use plates !

After the eat of the moment they do their own washing-up !

The largest plateful comes now dinner is over !

An easy ride to the Base ! Is it ?
