

293

2 827051

THE CUP FINAL - - Nearly 100,000 people witness the all-Lancashire battle at Wembley.

Picture:-

Last night the North Country packed all its population into trains for London. Now the great trek enters on its--
--final stage, Wembley, and the battle for the Cup !

Nearly 100,000 people are in the Stadium ready for the climax of the great invasion.

The teams enter - Everton in white jerseys and black shorts, Manchester City in scarlet and white.

Manchester City kicks off ! A fast start. Buzby passes to Marshall and out to the wing Toseland, who centres-kicks a long centre which Sagar clears.

Manchester City is playing like a -machine !

Manchester gets a break ! Brooks heads right onto Stein's toe.

Manchester takes a 'pot' shot - - Sagar clears easily.

Everton gets-dangerous takes a chance hits the bar and the ball goes over.

Everton is kept busy by Manchester City's perfectly co-ordinated pressure, but Dixie Dean's team are more than equal to the job.

At half-time the score favours Everton by one-nothing.

Stein scored from a clever pass from Dean. Off again !

Dunn, Everton, gets by Bray with clever footwork. Dale tackles him, and they're both down ! Dunn recovers and gets the ball away. Looks as if Everton might score here !
- - No ! Langford has cleared.

Everton are working hard to improve their advantage and playing very good football.

They're away with it again. Manchester's getting grim, but Everton's not-slack- keeping the pace hot !
- - - GOAL ! - -

{ EFFECTS } .
{ EFFECTS } .

Dean absolutely threw himself on the ball and put it into the net. Langford had n't a chance. Everton finally wins the match by three-goals to nil, after a great game.