

2057951

MILITARY SUNDAY IN YORK - - Troops of the Northern Command attend annual service of thanksgiving at the Minster.

-Yorkshire-

Picture.:-

Troops from the various centres of the Northern Command have concentrated in York to-day for Military Sunday service at the Minster. (PAUSE). At the saluting base are the Very Reverend Doctor Bate,--

--Dean of York, the Honourable Geoffrey Howard--

--Lord Lieutenant of North Riding, Lieutenant-General Sir Gatherne-Hardy, G.O.C. Northern Command--

--and Canon Tuckey, who is to conduct the service.

{ BAND }
{ BAND }

For the past thirty-years, Military Sunday has been an annual event in York's military and civil life. (PAUSE)

Since the war the parade has included men from the Old Comrades Association, the British Legion, the Legion--

--of Frontiersmen etc. (PAUSE).

(EFFECTS).