

THE LONG, LONG TRAIL - - 42 competitors take part in the Stock Exchange walk from London to Brighton.

Picture.:-

For one day Stock Exchange members tie up their bulls and bears in the City and take an annual walk to Brighton, starting at 6. a.m., which seems a little early !

The first four miles brings them to Streatham, where they tread--

--quietly to avoid waking the light Monday Morning sleepers, and causing a nuisance.

Only 39½ miles--

--says the Purley sign-post, where time-keepers fill in their log.

A paradox ! A welcome sponger !

No.1. is L.J.Hollyer, who won the race last year !

(EFFECTS).

Yes, another little drink couldn't do him any harm !

At Crawley, the worst half is behind them, and Hollyer, wearing hat, is mostly in front !

The sun is beginning to make their heads --
--uncomfortable, so we show the feet for a change.

And here is the end of the long, long, trail.
(PAUSE) Hollyer is the winner. Eight hours and fifty-eight minutes. Very good going, and better stopping !
