

2252981

R.A.F FLYERS' RETURN - - Squadron-Leader
Gayford and Flight Lieutenant Nicholetts arrive home from their long-distance record-breaking flight to South Africa.

-Farnborough-

Picture:-

(EFFECTS).

(EFFECTS).

This 'plane brings back to Britain two of her foremost airmen Squadron-Leader Gayford and--

--Flight-Lieutenant Nicholetts, record breakers of long-distance flights. - - Five-thousand-three-hundred--

--miles in one 'hop'. Cranwell Aerodrome to Walvis Bay, in South Africa.

(EFFECT).

Lord Londonderry, Secretary of State for Air, gives the flyers their first hand-shake on--

--landing, and it's a hearty grip, too !

For they're history makers of the air !

Sir John Salmond, Chief of Air Staff, Squadron-
Leader Gayford, Lord Londonderry, and Flight-Lieutenant Nicholetts.