IN AN OLD DEVON TOWN - - The Clerk of the Weather does his best to "wash out" West Country May festivities - - but fails !

-Torrington-

Picture.:- The weather didn't seem to like Torrington's revival of the old Maypole dancing in the village square.
When the Town--

--Crier read the Mayor's Proclamation, the sun shone, and then it rained.

All the little dancers had to change their frocks,
but if the rain thought to change their minds, it failed !
Youth will have its fling - - wet or fine !

(EFFECTS).

But it was a bright affair. The deep depression affected only the-- --weather. Everybody came, including the Mayors of the district, and the quaint old revival was a great success.
