Picture.:-

A guard of honour of nurses, ex-service men and many thousands--

--of the public of Darlington welcome Prince George when he arrives to--

--open the Town Memorial Hospital. one-hundred-and ten thousand pounds--

--have been spent, and of course, well spent--

--on its erection and equipment. His Royal Highness--

--congratulates Darlington on its progress and enterprise.

(EFFECTS).

Of the many wards in this hospital, here is one !

And this is a not too patient patient !

The Prince leaves after an exhaustive round of inspection, and--

--Darlington's citizens go to bed proud of Darlington.
