

2582 P 51

INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW - - The first equestrians of eight European countries compete for the Mussolini Gold Cup at the Hippodrome, Rome.

-Italy-

Picture.:-

Cavalry officers of eight nations are gathered here at the Piazza di Siena, Rome, for the-- --International Horse Show. The cream of Europe's horsemen parade before ultra-fashionable crowds prior to competing in the various-- --events.

(EFFECTS).
(EFFECTS).
(EFFECTS)

The rider adjudged to be the most perfect horseman-- will receive the gold cup given by Signor Mussolini,-- who takes a keen interest in equestrian affairs.

Germany's ex-crown-prince is with Italy's Prime Minister, and the galaxy--

--of aristocratic families represented makes the meeting something like an--

--Italian Ascot. The German officers do exceedingly well, drawing ahead of their--

--competitors - - - He's muffed it ! Bad luck ! That's better ! And that ! (PAUSE).

A high standard of performance is maintained, --but the German team carry off the gold Cup.