

C-20701

GOLF FOR GUINEAS - - At Southport, world-famous players compete in the 1,500 guineas Professional Golf Tournament.

-Lancashire-

---

Picture.:)

The final stages of Southport's fifteen-hundred guineas Professional Golf Tournament !

Henry Cotton drives off the first tee. He's general favourite and if-- --he wins, it will be the 'hat trick' for him ! He's won two years already.

W.H.Davies of Wallasey makes it all look very easy !

Cotton on the 16th Green tries to 'waft' the ball to the hole. It misses !

E.Ray takes a chance, but has no luck !

A.J.Lacey, a Ryder Cup nominee--

--at the 16th. This hole is 490 yards, and Lacey's gallery follows to see what he's going to do about it !

At the 18th, there's rather a crush. The crowd is closing in to watch--

--Henry Cotton play an important 'shot', and he's missed it ! This is where golfers' language comes in useful.

He can't miss it now. One foot in one !

That bad-luck putt cost Cotton the Victory. W.H.
Davies wins--

2292181

-2-

the Tournament from him by one stroke ! And receives from Southport's Mayor three-hundred guineas for-- --his share of the beadle ! That clubbing business seems a paying'racket' !