Spring brings out the Women's Eights to row for the championship in-- --their class. Pushing out the boat doesn't mean--

--drinks all round in this case. The teams paddle from Hammersmith--

--to Putney for the start. There they are lining up, and--

--off ! The competitors are St.Bride's, a new entry, Furnivalls, and Lyons ! The latter two teams made a dead-heat of it last year.

Some fast fours pace the eights ! Lyons and Furnivalls are fighting it out together. There are only three boats in it, so St.Bride's-- --will get a place anyhow ! Lyons, rowing strongly, brilliantly, and 'nippily' get first past the post.

Furnivalls come in a good second, three lengths behind.(PAUSE).

The weaker-sex victors have still enough strength to carry their boat in. Well, Captain Eileen Taylor ought to be-- --pleased with her crew. These hens can now be 'cockaheop'.
