

2-822251

A GOOD EFFORT - - BUT NOT GOOD ENOUGH - -

Joe S. Wright makes a series of unsuccessful attempts to regain the world's motor-cycling speed record for Britain.

-Southport-

Picture.:-

A motor-cycle valued at two thousand, five hundred pounds ! It's the property of--

--J.S. Wright. Messrs Dworski & Meyer have brought their special electrical timing apparatus--

--from Germany to record to the 'nth' of a second--

--Joe Wright's attempt on the world's highest--

--motor cycle speed of 151-miles per hour.

he
A final tune-up, and starts the trial effort.

(EFFECTS FOR YARDS).

The record is still intact. His wife wishes him better luck next time. So do we !