

2-PP2P81

ENGLISH FOOTBALLERS IN ITALY - - Excited

crowd of over 50,000 witness great soccer battle between England and Italy, in Rome.

Picture.:-

Romans again gather to witness a gladiatorial combat in a vast arena ! This-- --time the only lions present are well-known footballers of England and Italy. The English team--

--salutes Signor Mussolini.

The Fascist Party's stadium is packed with over fifty thousand excited spectators. For months they have-- --waited for this match. Italy passes - - England gets it -- centres, - - and kicks down the field.

The shot is easily cleared.

Italy's team is a strong one. Ferrari, the inside left is fast and accurate,--

--and the English team finds that the job is a tough one.

Ferrari draws first blood for Italy.

(EFFECTS).

When Italians go wild, there's no half-measures about them. Another goal like that,--

--and they will have the worst of 'score' throats possible.

England attacks, and in a nice piece of team play, Bastia gets--

--a shot home and equalises, making a drawn game.

(EFFECTS).