

BOYS OF THE R.A.F.

Pupils of the Royal Air Force School of Physical Training at Uxbridge give fine display in preparation for the Royal Tournament. -Middlesex-

Eighty youths selected from amongst hundreds of a similar mould who will give a Physical----- ----training display at the Royal Tournament. To-day the feet only walk; soon they--- ----- will fly. For these youths are destined to--- -----become pilots in the Royal Air Force. Their average age is-

----- 19½ years----- (PAUSE)

The display rehearsal for the big event at Olympia illustrates how brain and muscle-----

-----are trained to act in perfect concord. Agility and lightness of movement are essentials for this particular dancing jump or jumping dance, or whatever it is-----

-----after trying to hit the clouds the boys come down to earth

EFFECTS

-----These exercises are not invented to please the eye of the beholder although they do-----

----that too, but are scientifically graded to efficiently develop every muscle and sinew. PAUSE-----

-----What about this for suppleness?-----

-----If there is any superfluous fat about them it'll soon be dripping-----

-----off at this rate-----

-----and that's as much as we can show you for the moment.
We've heard-----

---- lots about the Boys of the Old Brigade; this should inspire someone to give us a song about Men of the Young Brigade.

And that takes them off (TRADE MARK) and me too!
