IRISH UP! - - Picked men of the 8th King's Royal Irish Hussars perform remarkable feats in preparation for the Royal Tournament.

-Hounslow-

Picture.:-

If these horses are clumsy with their feet somebody is--

--going to get a real kick out of it !

(EFFECTS).

The human 'hoop' is always spectacular, and sometimes painful !

The performers are men of the 8th King's Royal Irish Hussars, and what they can't do--

--with, and on, a horse, is hardly worth trying !
(PAUSE). All this-- --is in preparation for the thrills of the Royal Military Tournament.

This is tricky work ! Over one pole at each pace ! These horsemen could ride upstairs at l.a.m.--

--without waking the wife - - - Ah ! - - That's where the Sergeant-Major's vocabulary--

--gets exercise. Come on, you cripples ! (EFFECTS).

They're now charging towards the Canteen ! What they charge at the Canteen needn't worry us !
