

13/10/51

GOOD SHOOTING - - Scots Guards and Tower Hamlets Rifles victorious in keen contests at London District Spring Rifle Meet, Pirbright.

-Surrey-

---

Picture. :-

It's so hot here, that a man of--
--the Scots Guards has just fallen out in a faint.
He pleaded to carry on, but was instructed to see the M.O. At--
--this Meeting - - the London Spring Rifle Meeting - -
--the winners of many coveted trophies--
--are decided upon. A score or so of-- --famous regiments are competing. Kilties are favourites--
--in some quarters.
Grenadiers and Irish Guards are-- --doing well. The Scots Guards are waiting their chance of hitting bulls.
- - Er ! - - Just a moment while I change position !
This is better !(SHOT) - - Glad I didn't stay !
(SHOT EFFECTS).
That's a 'raw' one I'll warrant !
The famous Cup goes to the 1st Battalion Scots Guards,--
--and the Dewar Trophy to the Tower Hamlets Rifles for a record score ! Bully !