

2-212P51

ALL QUEENS! Charming "royal" ladies from many North Wales towns grace Llandudno's May Festival, with their presence.

-Caernarvon-

---

Picture.:-

Colwyn Bay, showing excellent taste, elected Joyce Haigh as--

--May Queen. Rhyl decided on Rene for its queenship--

--of the year, and here comes the retiring rose majesty of Llandudno. Wales is doing itself proud--

--these days. Scented roses everywhere, and not a smell of leek !

Gyffyn's May Queen is Hilda Chatfield - - lovely little lady !

Llandudno's Rose Queen is F.E.Cooper.-

The Welsh collector of funds receives - - don't all rush at once !

Llandudno has two queens - one rose and one may, and this introduces the May Queen of the year Miss Tudwen Jones.

"Uneasy lies the head--

--that wears a crown" doesn't apply to happy Tudwen, evidently !