At this jubilee performance, the King's horses and the King's men show how thrilling--

--their every-day life can be. X It's a--

--show which gives the lie to gruesome advertisements of patent--

--medicines, and buries for ever the rumour of a C.S. standard--

--for British manhood. X Thousands will leave this--

--sight and start morning exercises, with a hope of rivalry.
What a hope !

the A magnificent display is staged by the Royal Scots, royal regiment whose records--

--reveal three centuries of heroism and valour. The silken folds--

--of its colours have fluttered over practically every continent,-

--and its victories have been legion. This show--

--is a drama of empire. A history book of thrilling tableaux

--touched with the magic wand which quickens to life the heroic past.
