

2051951

COACHING MARATHON - - Scenes

recalling bygone days during "harness class" event of Bath and West Show.

-London-

Picture.:-

To-day a scene like this is rare, but to-day is a-- --rare day. The coaching marathon is one-- --of those events which recalls the good-- --old days of romance and adventure. At least, that's what the old folks--
--say. Leaving Hyde Park for Wimbledon.

Crossing Hammersmith Bridge--

--according to the rules, Claude Duval, or Dick Turpin should--
--leap out about here, and relieve the passengers--
--of their loose change, but these are-- --dull days ! Entering the grounds of the Bath--
--and West Show at Wimbledon, The Prince of Wales has delighted--
--everyone by paying a surprise visit.

Mr. Sydney Allen's--

--team of bays wins the first prize--
--for the Coaching Marathon, and the Lord Mayor of London--
--presents the honours. Even the horses congratulate themselves.