FRENCH RAIL SMASH - - Fifteen dead and 140 injured is toll of terrible disaster which befel holiday express near Nantes.

-France-

Picture:- Here, four kilometres from Nantes, the French railway disaster occurred, causing fifteen deaths. At this same spot, four days before, a goods train was derailed. The track had been temporarily replaced and engine--

--drivers were signalled to pass slowly over this portion of the line.

The indicator of the wrecked engine showed that the speed at the time of the-- --disaster was nearly sixty miles an hour. Either the driver--

--was careless, or he failed to see the signals.
Which ? Inquiry will probably answer this question.
