GRADUATION DAY - - President Roosevelt
addresses four-hundred cadets of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis.

- U.S.A. -

Picture.

After his address, President Roosevelt presents the new ensigns--

--with their commissions. This picture gives a delightful impression-- --of the President's personal charm. The cadets are as pleased with him as our Chancellor and Cabinet.
