MAKING A HABIT OF IT ! - T.W. Green wins the annual Manchester-to-Blackpool Walk for the fifth year in succession !
- Lancashire -

Picture: The Manchester to Blackpool Walk was started twentyone--
--years ago and its been going on ever-- --since, with pauses, of course. This year's early morning start conditions ~~are~~ favourable.

There's the famous T.W. Green, world's middle ~~and~~ long
--and long distance champion. PAUSE.

At Bolton, Barry of Preston and Smith of Bolton meet a depression from Iceland which does --
--its best to ^{draw} ~~turn~~ them and McKenniffe of Heywood .

Weather conditions were even worse when Chorley was reached but Daddy Hesketh, aged sixtysix, keeps on walking.

Entering Preston, Champion Green forgets its raining and gives an exhibition of style and speed.

At Blackpool, F. Anglesey is first man hom and wins the Threlfall Handicap Race Cup.

W. Pennington wins the Veteran's Handicap--
--but T.W. Green takes the Cup for the fifty miles Walk. Now for a change, he's going --
--for a stroll with his wife and son !
