A LONG, LONG PULL -- Athletic girls
"pull their weight" in strenuous tug-of-war contest at Sudbury.
-Suffolk-

Picture: I've always thought it unkind to say that--
--lots of girls throw their weight about but here's the-- --proof. The side which has done the least slimming will-- --get the best chance. Its weight that tells and grip.

The harder they hug -- sorry -- tug, the better. One--
--slip means a black mark against their side, or whichever part--
--hits the ground. EFFECTS.

EFFECTS.

This proves that when a woman puts her foot down, she takes some shifting.

Nobody's winning and partisan feeling is running high--
-- very high -- even higher than that.

The ends are in sight and the best--
--and biggest team wins. Now, now, get up, the ground is damp and neuralgia is very painful.
