

"MATRIMONIAL STAKES" - Novel firing
competition introduced at Aldershot
Command Small Arms Meeting.
- Hampshire -

Picture: Preparing for the Knockout Machine Guns Match for all ranks at the Aldershot Command Small Arms Meeting.

Teams have to load while lying--
--down, fire and knock down as many of eight plates--
--as they can hit all in one minute.

EFFECTS

EFFECTS

This competition is an innovation. Matrimonial Stakes.
The--

--mixed pairs include a brace of serjeants and their ladies.

Major General Harman, Commanding First Division and his daughter.

For this event, the firing distance from the targets--
--is twentyfive yards. The ladies did very-- --well. They ought to secure points in matrimonial stakes anyway.

Prior to this meeting, only soldiers could enter, but this time the ladies are having a shot or shots.

General Sir Charles Harrington and Lady Harrington also compete--

--in the successful experiment of mixed pairs.