

ENGLAND AT LAST! - - Thornton and MacDonald return home after trying experiences in Soviet prisons.

-Harwich and London-

---

Picture.:-

It's 6 o'clock, and a fine morning, as the ship landing--

--MacDonald and Thornton from Moscow, via Holland, is warped to the quay at Harwich. Mrs. Thornton is here and Mr. MacDonald's mother has arrived to travel to London--

--with her son. The faces of the released Soviet-- --prisoners show definite relief at being free and on British soil once again.

(EFFECTS).

Mr.. Thornton looks fairly well, but Mr.
MacDonald displays evidence that the--

--rigours of confinement have played some havoc with his general health.
