4200 ARISTOCRATS - - Famous breeds compete for coveted prizes at Richmond Dog Show.

Picture:- If you wish you'd bought a dog with your V/Gd, here are a few--

--samples you might choose from next time. The old English Sheep Dog is a favourite animal; not only counts the sheep, but will--

--guide the shepherd home on 'wet' nights.

Great Danes, the delight of house-owners, and the despair of house-breakers !

The Richmond Dog Show--

--is a popular one amongst exhibitors. Dachshounds !
All these have legs--

--only just long enough to reach the ground.

The four-thousand, two hundred entries--

--include many very famous aristocrats of the 'doggie'--

--world. Dalmatians, a very intelligent and healthy breed--

--although afflicted with chronic spottiness.

Alsations still hold favourite place with dog lovers. Fifty-seven judges think very highly-- --of the assembled bow-wows. I wonder what the bow-wows think of the judges !
