

ROMANCE OF A PEOPLE - - 3,500 players

re-enact Hebrew history in monster pageant celebrating Jewish Day at the great Chicago Exposition.

-U.S.A.-

---

Picture.:- An open-air theatre in the World's Fair at--

--Chicago draws over one-hundred-thousand people--

--to witness three-thousand-five-hundred players enact the history of the Jewish Race,

A magnificent pageant showing ancient Bacchanalian dances,--

--preparation for human sacrifice to the great idol Moloch, the god of fire. The tribulations of this great--

--race are shown - - the dreadful oppression--

--which led to their--

--fleeing out of Israel and becoming a scattered people without a country.

For a whole day--

--and a night, this thrilling history is--

--unfolded in realistic colourful spectacle. The story of a great people; the epic of a--

--great religion. Episodic--

--finger posts pointing out Jewish--

--progress through the ages. It is almost like an impressive--

--challenge to Judaic antagonists.

Apart however from any political or religious angle this pageant--

--remains forgettable as a colossal and ambitious drama of history.