"ON THE BONNIE BANKS O' LOCH LOMOND" - - Scotland's champion athletes and dancers at first of the year's Highland Gatherings, at Luss.

-Dumbarton-

Picture.:-

The Banks of Loch Lomond, - - Luss - - to be precise, are the scene of Caledonia's--

--first Highland Gathering of the season. Braw Scots of the lake and fell are here honoured at--

--the meeting by Sir Iain Colquhoun, as Chieftain.

Throwing the hammer ! George Clarke, of Dundee !
A fine hugh !

Sergeant-Major R.K.Starkey ! The hammer weighs twenty-two pounds. It's pull when swinging is terrific.

Now the giants prepare to start tossing the caber.
A very difficult feat ! Apart from--

--its weight, it's much too long for easy handling.

Up, but not over !

George Clarke of Dundee tries again. A wonderful but not too successful effort !

Still, cheery compensations can be found in some neat undiluted 100% Scotch.
