GLORIOUS GOODWOOD - - Fine weather favours opening of the social and racing carnival in a fairyland setting.

-Sussex-

Picture.:- Marvellous weather favours Glorious Goodwood.
From the dull chrysalis of costumes and raincoats--

--emerge beautiful creatures delicately covered with gossamer silks and muslins.

Lovely Trundle Hill is dotted with groups of happy picnickers. Race--

--fans get their meal over before the Steward's Cup is run. They may be--

--tee broke after that to pay for another. The sun glints--

--on the satin coats of beautifully groomed horses.

They all look worth backing, but only one can-- --win unfortunately. To the post now ! Time is getting on !

And the tapes are down for the line-up !
They're off ! And very nicely off too ! The tote on Trundle Hill, operating for the-- --first time at Goodwood is bursting with money--

--put on these trained-to-the-tick horses. 'Punters' without return tickets will soon know whether they go home chauffeur driven, or just walk it. "PHARACHE" has won it, so now they do know.

By the way, can anyone lend me the price of a 'bus fare ?
