Picture.:-

For the 219th time the--

--race for the Doggetts' Coat and Badge is starting.

Ready ? Then off ! Thomas Doggett was a famous comedian in his day and he was so funny when George I ascended the throne of Britain in 1714 that he commemorated the event by providing in his will for this Race and prize. London Bridge to Chelsea is-- --the course. Seven members of Barge Master Phelps' family have already won the honour, and this year Eric Phelps makes the eighth. He's the brother of the world's sculling champion.

Two of the eight of the other winning Phelps congratulate--

--Eric. The next Phelps will be 'one over the eight'.
