The annual Californian Rodeo is a big show, and then some ! One thousand cowboys and cowgirls compete.
-- Are they called Cowgirls ? It seems impolite.
However,--

--the show kicks off with a few bucking steers, and the steers kick-off--

--a few bucking riders. Who's next for the high jump ?

And now a real broncho buster ! Man versus horse ! The horse wins. The man is placed.

Another tries his luck, and draws a blank.

That horned beast just won't be sat on. He prefers his--

--own company. Another is shown where he gets off.

It's quite easy if you only keep your balance.

This proves how simple it all is. Take it slowly, with no fuss ! Nice and gently, and if you must fall off, take it easily, and pick a nice soft place to put yourself. Just -- like -- that !
