GREEN DOES IT AGAIN! The famous
Belgrave Harrier smashes his own record in the Nottingham-to-Birmingham walk.

-On the road-

Picture.:-

These seventy-four people like walking so much that they have made up a phreery party to see who can cover 55 miles in the shortest time. Curious, but there you are !

At Derby, after fifteen miles, H. Taylor is hotly pursued by T.W.Green.

Next comes H. Treese, also of Derby. T.W.--

--Green at Burton hops into first place. A stimulating place, Burton ! Green went on ahead, and Taylor followed --

--minutes later. At Lichfield Green lowers his pace to "lower a pint". (It's beer, too !)

Forty-eight miles ! Sutton Coalfield ! J. Medlicot arrives. Green is now--

--further ahead. Taylor is still walking. Green, still ahead, is very lonely until he reaches Birmingham, the finish !, when he is joined by a few friends, including the Police, for protection.

Green is a veteran long-distance champion. The older he grows, the-- --faster he walks. They will soon have to pace him with a fast car.
