-Hampshire-

Picture:- Lord and Lady Baden-Powell arrive for their next --

--Scout engagement. A company of Girl Guides are inspected and--

--a box of chocolates is presented to Lady Baden-Powell. The--

--Chief, looking very well after his visit-- --to the Hungary Jamboree inspects a Company of Scouts.

The beloved couple are then free to go aboard-- --to greet their cruising family of some 650 senior scouts and--

--guides. A cruise to Scandinavian ports is part--

--of a scheme for an international interchange of ideas and ideals. While on board the party--

--will receive training in elementary navigation and seamanship. A-- --happy idea ! Lord Baden Powell is undoubtedly--

--a great old scout. That's not familiarity !
It's just plain fact !
